Life Reflections

1937 ~ 2015

A Time to Be Born...

James Murphy was born December 31, 1937 in Junction City Arkansas to the late Mary and John Murphy .

A Time to Plant...

James received his education from Prescott Elementary School and graduated from McClymond High School in the West Oakland neighborhood of Oakland, California. He went on to further his education at Laney College in Oakland College and received a degree in electronics. He also served in the United States Air Force & United States Army Reserve.

A Time to Love...

James was married to Alma Murphy and to this union 9 children were born. He later married his current wife of 22 years, Hattie Murphy.

...A Time to Build Up

James was employed by the United States Postal Service as a maintenance mechanic and retired after 41 years of service .

...A Time to Die

On October 1, 2015 James earthly journey came to an end. He was reunited again with his father and mother; sisters, Fenella Allen & Mary Ruth Golden and son Raymond Flennaugh.

A Time to Mourn...

He leaves to mourn his death, but cherish his memories his wife of 22 years, Hattie Murphy, siblings; Ester L. Murphy , Willie Paul Murphy and Therman J. Murphy, children; James Murphy Jr., Leslie Murphy, April Flennaugh-Glasper, Kimberly Murphy, Patrick Murphy, Dana Murphy, Kista Murphy, Monica Murphy, Eric Murphy, Engla Murphy and a host of nieces, nephews and grandchildren

Acknowledgements

We wish to extend our deepest thanks to all those who offered their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement. At our most difficult time, your thoughtfulness and assistance was greatly appreciated. To our neighbors in the East, West, North, and South and all the many other, we cannot begin to thank you enough. The many lovely floral offerings, the foods you dropped off, the phone calls you made, the hugs you shared and other tokens of sympathy were most welcome we shall always remember your thoughtfulness.

"For God is a Good God."

Thank you
